As President of OPULENT AGENCY, in Los Angeles

It is with great enthusiasm that I refer Valentina Castellani-Quinn and Gilles David and their new Company CELEBRATING LIFE, which had its debut last July 2022 with an extraordinary event in Santa Barbara, California.

Opulent Agency is happy to collaborate with CELEBRATING LIFE in their International business initiatives and endeavors, which serves as a powerful International platform to promote business, finances, fashion entertainment, sport and overall world class companies and their projects.

Valentina and Gilles have extraordinary background, achievements and awards, in Film, Marketing, Fashion and Business and can propel any company to success through the power of their strategies, International network, media coverage and professional experience.

I look forward to collaborate and expand our operations with CELEBRATING LIFE and create together unique experiences of value in the world.
